

Rawhide Boys Ranch, Inc. - www.rawhide.org

Rawhide Boys Ranch is a non-profit residential program for teenage young men with behavioral problems founded by John Gillespie in 1965. It is an impressive 500-acre ranch located on the Wolf River, near New London, WI. A staff of 150 dedicated Christians provide accredited year-round academic and vocational training. Contact Rawhide for information about youth placement.

1776 American Dream, Inc. - www.1776AmericanDream.com

1776 American Dream is a non-profit, 500-page U.S. History Website available at no charge to teachers, home-school parents and all students. There are 270 one-minute simulated interviews with the men, women and youth that played a role in the founding of America. The interviews and stories are historically accurate and highlight the Christian values of our founders.

WebOuts - www.webouts.com

Learn how your church or business can highlight your website by having your pastors and staff virtually walking out of your webpages to talk to your viewers, just like we have done on the Vision 2 Serve website.

Digicom Productions, Inc. - www.digicomproductions.com

Digicom Productions is a marketing company providing a variety of services including building websites. They provide a standard format that can be used by churches, and they will train church staff on how they can easily make page changes on a weekly basis to keep the website up-to-date. They are the parent company of the WebOuts division.

Constant Contact, Inc. - www.constantcontact.com

Constant Contact is a company that provides churches and companies with e-mail distribution support. They will manage your e-mail list, assist with attractive distribution messages, and send them at your direction to hundreds or thousands of your e-mail contacts. Their prices are very inexpensive and start as low as $15 a month.

Laugh Your Way to a Better Marriage - www.laughyourway.com

Laugh Your Way is a unique support ministry providing a variety of services to build strong marriages. Six-hour seminars take humors but very meaningful approach to showing the differences between men and women, and that they can learn to actually enjoy each other's differences. The seminars are "man friendly" as no notes have to be taken and no break-out sessions. The seminars are available by DVD for any church.

Flag Page - www.flagpage.com

The flag page offers a simple, fun and very positive personality profile that provides insights into spouses and children understanding each other. This is part of the Laugh Your Way program.

Acts 1:8 Ministry - www.acts18.org

Acts 1:8 Ministry is a non-profit program that provides free program and consulting to churches and individuals to share their faith through random acts of Christian kindness. They were founded in 2002 in Green Bay, Wisconsin, and now show Christians how to share the love of Christ worldwide.